REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Todd Baker (Reg. No. 45,265) on December 21, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel claim 29.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3, 4, 12, 22-25, 27 and 28 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claim 3, prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest an image forming apparatus comprising a plurality of third detecting units, each third detecting unit situated at a third position along the main scanning direction of a corresponding laser beam, wherein the third detecting unit detects the corresponding laser beam, and a clock frequency adjusting unit that counts the number of clocks for one laser beam as a reference value and adjusts a write clock frequency of each of the other laser beams excluding the one lased beam so as to coincide with the reference value, in addition to the other limitations of the claims.

With respect to claim 4, prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest an image forming apparatus comprising the clock frequency adjusting unit that includes a phase-locked loop with variable filters that multiplies a reference clock by a multiple N and varies the number of filters in the phase-locked loop and the multiple N to adjust the write clock frequency, in addition to the other limitations of the claims.

With respect to claim 12, 22-25, 27 and 28, prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest a method of correcting timing for generating laser beams in an image forming apparatus / an image forming method using a clock frequency adjusting unit shared by the optical systems, in addition to the other limitations of the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
